

We wish to express out opposition to the petition to eliminate portability of wireless phone numbers from one supplier to another. We believe the size of the claimed costs to suppliers is grossly exaggerated whereas the inconvenience to the individual user is great, and the cost of notifying others disproportionate. If granted, this petition will serve only to reduce competition and lead to increased rates.